III. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

IV.

Unanimous approval of minutes from June 4, 2016

IV. OPEN ISSUES

Filing Requirements

Peace, Love & Music's filing for the 501(c)(3) status was finally approved. The designation was assigned nearly one year after its filing. The IRS had no questions and the application was approved as presented. As a result all major fundraising will take place during the second half of the year.

Jupiter Jubilee

Peace, Love and Music was represented at the Civic Fair at the Jupiter Jubilee, Saturday, February 4. A booth was donated the Organization to distribute literature, answer questions and provide request forms. The request forms collected contact information for potential donors, scholarship recipients and other organizations that might benefit.

Website

The PeaceLoveandMusic.org website has been updated and now accepts credit cards.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Scholarships

Dates and changes to protocol were discussed for the next scholarship award period. Introductory letters will be sent to all participating schools in the first week of April with a follow up letter and email the following month. This follow up will contain the scholarship application, as well as links to the website where full information will be provided.

Silent Auction Event

Absolute Music Studios will be holding their Spring Showcase on June 10, 2017. The Showcase consists of two separate concerts of student musicians. In addition to scholarship recipients participating in the concert, Peace, Love & Music will hold a silent auction in the room adjacent to the performance in between the two performances. Participants from the first performance will be encouraged to attend the Peace Love & Music event after the concert and participants in the second concert will be encouraged to come early and check out the Peace, Love & Music event prior to the performance.

Kristina, with input and review from Board, will create and distribute a letter requesting auction items from various local businesses.

Christopher will manage onsite logistics, reserving space, etc.

Future Fundraising

Venues were discussed for future, large scale fundraising events. Specific pricing and available to be presented at next meeting.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

The meeting ended at 6:40pm. The next meeting to be determined.
